

After 90 Years, Is It Still a Boy's Club?

AACOC Women History Month Program

Tuesday, March 23, 2010

Georgia International Convention Center

2000 Convention Center Concourse

College Park, Georgia 30337

Registration & Networking: 10:30am - 11:30am

Lunch and Program will begin promptly at 11:30am

Keynote Speaker

The Honorable Kasim Reed - Mayor, City of Atlanta

The program will include a panel discussion focused on:

“Diversity of women in business and the work place
and the unique challenges of performing in that arena.”

The panel will delve into such topics as:

- Is there still a Boy's Club?
- Role of Affirmative Action in America in the success of women?
- Are there still “glass ceilings”?
- What does successful leadership look like for women leaders?
- New Buddy System (Fortune Magazine article) – is it working across racial and ethnic lines?

Panel Participants include:

Darryl Griffin, President / Accolades, Inc.

Millie Irizarry, CEO / Latin American Association

Marcia Taylor, CEO / Bennett International Group, Inc.

Xianqin “Lisa” Wallace, NACA - SR VP / National Association of Chinese Americans

Panel Moderator:

Melanie Harrington, President / American Institute for Managing Diversity

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Sponsorship Opportunities Available

Admission: AACOC Members $35.00 • Non-AACOC Members $50.00

For reservations, please fill out the registration form below, and return it by March 17, 2010 to:

Fax: 404.389.0271 • Email: info@airportchamber.com • Mail: AACOC, 600 S. Central Avenue - Suite 100, Atlanta, GA 30354

Name

Address

State

Zip

Fax

E-mail

Method of payment Check Visa MasterCard Will Pay at Door (No shows will be billed.)

Credit Card ID#

Exp. Date

For more information please contact the Chamber office at: 404-209-0910